Dear Sir,

Will you add to my other letters to you by returning the enclosed - I am really grateful to you for your opinion of me - Nothing has been more disheartening to me than the misrepresentation furnished made of my conduct among anti Slavery men of the party of Mr Lincoln recently. I have stood by the President because I knew he was a thorough anti Slavery man I have resisted all sorts of blandishments from the more self seeking men who desired to supplant him I have ever understood the danger of some of them I knew he must anti Slavery men to support him which was the hardest battle with me. I begin to feel as if I was seeking the reward for my constancy to the good cause when I see that you have not been deceived by the flood of falsehoods which I have been launched on to

J. T. H.

Mr. Davis
